SALVATION ARMY BOARD.

A group of citizens met in the City Library, Tuesday afternoon, with Robert Fanning who is Travelling Promoter of the Salvation Army in this state. Mr. Fanning explained that the Army would establish a Camp at North Platte if it was found to be advisable. A committee was appointed to make a moral survey of this County and the result of their survey will determine the course taken. This committee consists of J. Q. Wiley, President; A. F. Streitz, Vice-President; T. O. Swenson, Secretary-Treasurer. The Board of Directors was selected as follows: J. H. VanCleave, John Edwards, Dr. Kerr, D. M. Laypoldt, Wm. Hendy and H. A. Donelson. If a Camp is located here it will bring at least three families as permanent residents of the city. An annual budget is raised by the Salvation Army to which North Platte contributes its quota and it will not require additional expense to maintain a camp here if it is needed.

Tabernacle Stucco Board For Sale.
The stucco board in the roof and side walls of the Tabernacle is being taken down and rolled up in good shape. There is a great deal of it that is not damaged at all. Some is slightly. If you are planning to build a garage, coal house, or stucco your frame house, here is a bargain for you. This material must all be sold at once in order that we may close up all accounts. Call at Tabernacle.

Circus is Coming.
The great John Robinson Circus, with its vast collection of world wide wonders, freaks, and curiosities, is scheduled to exhibit in North Platte Wednesday, July 14, and the advance brigades of billposters and press men have come and gone and have left glaring posters and newspaper displays, so that we have the opportunity of studying over the massiveness of this "World's Oldest Tented Attraction" as it has been termed.

According to press and public comment received from many cities this show has visited, much is to be expected in the latest and most up to date novel and feature entertainment and among the many acts mentioned are the Famous Nelson Family, The Flying Lapettes, The Aerial Youngs, Miss Nettie Dill, The Hodgint Troupe of daring bareback riders, Cecil Lowande and Co. sensational somersault riders and Miss Irene Montgomery, the latest Parisienne novelty, who hold the entire audience spellbound as she easily and carelessly throws herself around in the air while suspended high above the heads of the audience.

These and many other acts of merit too numerous to mention will be seen when the John Robinson Circus comes Wednesday, July 14.

Two performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m. the doors to the menageries opening one hour earlier to allow ample time in which to visit the wild animal departments, side shows, etc.
